SUMMARY

Product designer with 7+ years designing e-commerce experiences across web and app. I specialize in checkout, pricing and growth-driven marketing work: making complex offers easy to understand at the moment people decide to buy.

EXPERIENCE

[Job title, e.g. Senior UX Designer]

[Mon YYYY] – [Present]

Critical Mass | Design agency, e-commerce experiences across web and app

Client: Apple | Apple Card Monthly Installments (embedded in-house)

- Core team member redesigning Apple.com checkout to add Apple Card Monthly Installments across desktop, mobile web and the Apple Store app.
- Designed how monthly pricing showed up alongside full price throughout the buy flow, from the bag to checkout.
- Owned complex edge cases, including trade-in credits and bags mixing products with different installment terms.
- Partnered with copywriters on financing modals that explained the terms in plain language.
- Shipped across most of Apple's online storefronts and stayed live until Apple.com's next redesign.

Client: Apple | In-store iPhone pricing portal

- Redesigned Apple's customer-facing iPhone pricing portal used at carrier retailers such as Verizon.
- Focused the redesign on surfacing offers so customers could see the best deal quickly.

Client: Nissan | NCAA March Madness campaign

- Designed conversion-focused campaign experiences for Nissan's "Road 2 The Final Four" March Madness campaign.
